

Bombay Natural History Society (BNHS)

Requires

Field Biologist for study on Sarus Crane

Job Description: Candidate will have to assist the Principal Investigator in research, monitoring and conservation of the Sarus Crane in Vidarbha region, Maharashtra. The nature of work is diverse and spans across Gondia, Bhandara and Chandrapur districts of Maharashtra and adjoining Balaghat district of Madhya Pradesh different states of India.

Candidate should have ability to execute the field work in a scientific manner project report writing skills, data analysis with additional knowledge about use of information technology in wildlife studies.

No. of vacancies: One

Educational Qualification: M.Sc. in Life Sciences / Zoology / Environmental Science with at least one year field experience, Fresher can also apply.

Duties and responsibilities:

1. Regular field surveys
2. Data compilation and analysis
3. Writing scientific reports and papers with basic mapping and analytical skills
4. Writing project documents
5. Ready for extensive travel across field sites
6. To assist the Project Coordinator in overall execution of the project.
7. Physically and mentally fit to undertake strenuous field work in harsh weather

Desirables:

1. Sound understanding of ornithology and wetland ecosystem.
2. Strong scientific writing and basic mapping and analytical skills.

Salary: Rs. 30,000/- per month (CTS)

Age Limit: Below 30 years.

Duration: Initially for one year, subject to renewal for another two years based on performance.

Location of Placement: Project base will be in one of the field study area in Vidarbha region (with main reporting at BNHS headquarter Mumbai). He / she will be required to travel to field sites located in different districts of Maharashtra.

General Instructions:

1. Interested candidates can send their application via email or post with a detailed CV on or before 31st May 2023 by giving two references at:

HR Dept. Bombay Natural History Society, Hornbill House, Shaheed Bhagat Singh Road, Opp. Lion Gate, Mumbai – 400001 Tel. 22821811.

Email: cv.hr@bnhs.org

2. BNHS reserves the right to reject any candidature in view of incomplete information provided by the candidate or for any other reason thereof.