

Bombay Natural History society

Library

Sale of used books

1. This sale is exclusively for BNHS members, the NGOs working for wildlife, forest conservation and environment protection and associated with BNHS programmes will be given priority.
2. Books will be sold first cum first serve basis
3. The list of books ,available number of copies, and price is given on Home Page under section “Books List”
4. Request for books should be sent by email library@bnhs.org only.
5. In the email Members name with membership number and address should be mentioned.
6. Postage charges will be extra. Members may collect the books in person.
7. After reserving the request for books, if the said books are Available, members will be informed total amount along with postage charges and mode of payment. After receiving full payment, books will be despatched to the given address.